Re: AM Stereo Rulemaking
(Docket No. 92-298)

Dear Madam Secretary:

I am requesting confidential and privileged treatment by the Commission of my March 22, 1993, letter, which I am filing with the Commission by mail.

I request such treatment of that letter, as I allude therein to activity by Motorola in violation of the antitrust laws, and I do not believe it would be fair or proper for me to make such an allegation in a public document at this stage in this processing. I do not request that the letter be withheld from Motorola, which is fully aware of the allegations through litigation pending in the federal courts, some of which are under seal.
